ARTWORK STORY

This is about the strength of my bloodline, the Winmara of Biripi. The strong women from the mountains. My great grandmother, my grandmother, my mother and now mine and my children's connection to Biripi. This painting represents the strength of this connection. Our ancestors and bloodlines before me watch over and guide me. The eggs symbolise being born from the mountain. The dots under the mountain all the generations to come. Our connection to our country is infinite. We will forever belong. wanyibulwanyibul gunyila, wanyibulwanyibul gunyi. Always was, always will be.

Biripi Artist and traditional weaver, Joedie Lawler brings immense passion and heart to each one of her contemporary masterpieces. As well as a series of spectacular Aboriginal paintings, she has also delivered various commercial commissions using raw materials such as glass and fabric. Since learning her craft from a young age, closely taught by her grandmother in Taree, Joedie continues to express her views and thoughts through her original works of art. Using knowledge and experience from her upbringing, Joedie's pieces often reflect her interest in human connection and environmental importance. No matter what she creates, Joedie hopes every viewer can connect with her work and find just as much peace in it as she feels the moment she puts paint to canvas.
